Description

Title: A List of English-Language Fiction after 1922 in HathiTrust

Author(s): Underwood, Ted

Subject(s): fiction, HathiTrust, distant reading, 20th century

Abstract: Metadata for English-language fiction in HathiTrust Digital Library, after 1922. These volumes were identified as fiction algorithmically, using a predictive model trained on text, supplemented by metadata. Algorithmic prediction is imperfect, and this dataset contains errors that the author has not yet had time to fully measure and document. (Measuring recall, for instance, is not trivial.) The data is offered by the author without any promise or warranty. Use it if you find that it is, in practice, better than other alternatives; stop using it as soon as a better alternative becomes available.

English literature: English literature, body of written works produced in the English language by inhabitants of the British Isles from the 7th century to the present. Minor poetic genres include catalogs (two sets of “Maxims” and “Widsith,” a list of rulers, tribes, and notables in the heroic age), dialogues, metrical prefaces and epilogues to prose works of the Alfredian period, and liturgical poems associated with the Benedictine Office. Page 1
