This annotated bibliography covers the years 1995 through 2000 which saw a tremendous output of autobiographical material by Americans of color. Publishers released works by prominent civil rights leaders, musicians, entertainers, athletes, as well as unsung heroes with the courage to strive for a better life. This is the follow-up to the first volume of the "Autobiographies by Americans of Color" bibliography series. Keywords: annotated bibliography, Autobiographies, Americans of Color, multicultura America, U.S. History

Goodreads helps you keep track of books you want to read. Start by marking “An Annotated Bibliography of American Indian and Eskimo Autobiographies” as Want to Read: Want to Read saving… Want to Read. Many of those who look through this book will be surprised at the number of entries—over five hundred autobiographical narratives, well over one hundred of which are book length. The earliest date back to the eighteenth century; the latest reference is to a book still in press. Get A Copy.
