Abstract
Unconventional and weird, these are the words that describe my thesis. The thesis is an artistic self-reflection through drawings and explanations in writings. Six drawings will represent my major personality traits. Pieces of me are scattered throughout, but together, they're joined holistically.

Compatibility between Gemini and Pisces in love, friendship and romance is reviewed and analysed in this special compatibility match report. However, one thing that both Pisces and Gemini partners have in common is a sense of seeing the world in dualities. Light and dark, up and down, logic and magic – the two halves of the whole that make up everything in our world are realms of fascination to these folks. For Gemini, it's because their star sign is symbolised by the twins. The Twins in the Gemini astrology meaning are the representative figure of the process of interaction and communication between two humans. Usually, the two faces depicted are those of the Greek mythology brothers Castor and Pollux. Despite them being half-brothers, it seems that these two created a strong connection and were always together in permanent action and quenching their thirst for new experiences. It suggests that even opposites attract and that all in life is made out of a union of forces. This is also the symbol of knowledge, curiosity and communicative approach. The Gemini native is... original, keen to discover the world and sometimes a bit unstable in his desire to discover everything life has to offer.
