Screen scores: studies in contemporary Australian film music

Rebecca Coyle, Southern Cross University

Document Type
Book

Publication details

Abstract
This volume provides a series of in-depth analyses of the ways in which contemporary Australian cinema has used music in its soundtracks. Individual chapters analyze films including “Shine”, “The Piano”, “Priscilla: Queen of the Desert”, “Romper Stomper” and the “Mad Max” trilogy.

Screen scores: Studies in contemporary Australian film music