SCLLA Blawg Receives Rave Reviews

Have you read the SCLLA Blawg lately? It has gained national attention from Jerry Lawson, author of The Complete Internet Handbook for Lawyers, who said that "the Stark County Law Library blog does not have a snazzy name, but it is consistently one of the best current awareness sites for lawyers and law librarians," ¹ and that "it consistently comes up with intriguing little nuggets that seem to have slipped through the aggregator." ² The blawg is also listed as a link on the LegalBeetle web site under the weblogs category. ³

A link-search on Google <link: stark county law library blawg> will reveal over nine pages of sites that have linked to posts in our blog!

Recent topics on the SCLLA Blawg have included: "Tips for Bosses", "Holding Meetings Through Web Conferencing" and “Start the New Year Out With a Fresh, Clean Keyboard.” Go to <http://temp.starklawlibrary.org/blog/> to read the latest postings.
