Psychoanalysis is the process of using what we know about these three parts of someone’s personality to analyze the ways that person behaves. Literary critics sometimes analyze the actions of literary characters using the three personality structures that Freud identified. As critics explore the ego, superego, and id of characters in a work, they focus on the ways that these parts of the characters’ personalities influence the work as a whole. This process is called psychoanalytic criticism. In the next activity, you will use Freud’s theory to analyze the characters in The Cat In The Hat by Dr
