The Critical Analysis & Summarization of “To An Athlete Dying Young”, by A.E Housman This poem is telling the reader that you can not wait to win to enjoy your sports life. Life is not based on how much you win, but how hard you play. One must appreciate their time here on earth and the things they... Everyone has goals. Whether they involve career, relationships, or self-actualization, goals are important to the development of an individual. When we are children we tend to set our goals high and...
