Charisma and Routinisation in a Millennialist Community: Seventh-day Adventist Identity

Richard B. Ferret, Avondale College

Author Faculty (Discipline)
Theology

Document Type
Book

Publication Date
2008

Publication Details
This book was originally published as:

ISBN: 9780773448629

Abstract
This work examines the nature of Seventh-day Adventist (SDA) identity with particular reference to Ellen G. White, the movement's co-founder and prophet. Unlike most literature in which the primary method in assessing SDA identity from Adventist sources is limited to a theological perspective, this study analyzes the movement's socio-historical and cultural contexts.

Comments
Due to copyright restrictions this book is unavailable for download.

Staff and Students of Avondale College may access Charisma and Routinisation in a Millennialist Community: Seventh-day Adventist Identity from the Avondale Library (286.709 F41).

Charisma and Routinisation in a Millennialist Community: Seventh-day Adventist Identity may be accessed from the publisher here.

Recommended Citation