Travel to the United States. Canadian residents made 6.2 million trips to the United States in the first quarter, spending $5.3 billion. Accommodation was the largest single expense item, accounting for 38.3% of total travel expenditures. When it comes to overseas travel by Canadians, the first quarter of the year is traditionally the busiest as many residents head south to escape winter. During the first quarter of 2018, Canadian residents made 3.3 million trips to overseas countries (countries other than the United States). A Canadian traveller on a trip abroad may cross into several countries or states before being recorded as having re-entered Canada. Each of these crossings represents a visit. For travelers in pursuit of a peaceful & unique experience, this is the perfect place to be! Have a great time with your folks here. Things To Do: Go hiking in Garibaldi Provincial Park along the Cheakamus lake. Passport valid for travel to the United States – Your passport must be valid for at least six months beyond your period of stay in the United States (unless exempt by country-specific agreements). Each individual who needs a visa must submit a separate application, including any family members listed in your passport. Evidence of your employment and/or your family ties may be sufficient to show the purpose of your trip and your intent to return to your home country. If you cannot cover all the costs for your trip, you may show evidence that another person will cover some or all costs for your trip. Note: Visa applicants must qualify on the basis of the applicant's residence and ties abroad, rather than assurances from U.S. family and friends.
