Theories of Modern Art. by Herschel B. Chipp. A Rich Feast of Letters, Reviews and Writings. By Thriftbooks.com User, December 7, 2006. The beauty of this book is that so many letters, reviews, interviews etc. about/by so many artists are conveniently gathered in one place. On the whole, there isn't anything in here that you can't find elsewhere, such as in biographies of the individual artists. For example the letters contained in the opening section on "Post-Impressionism" from both Cezanne and Van Gogh are included in just about every biography on them Read More. 0.
