Republic of Macedonia by its structure is multiethnic and multicultural state, where they are present numerous differences in language and culture, religious, customary, etc., differences that play an important role in determining the relationships and processes in the development. Greater impact on annual growth has had construction, trade, transportation and hospitality that are substantially in line with short-term displacement indicators in these sectors. Seen from the demand perspective, the growth of the local economy in 2016 mainly is explained by the increased of the domestic demand and export activity.