Berlin Victory Parade of 1945 was held by the Allies of World War II on September 7, 1945 in Berlin, the capital of the defeated Nazi Germany. The four participating countries were the Soviet Union, the United States, the United Kingdom and France. The parade was proposed by the Soviet Union, following the June Moscow Victory Parade of 1945. July in Berlin also saw a British parade (the 1945 British Berlin Victory Parade). The September parade took place near the Reichstag building and the Brandenburg Office of Justice Programs: Bureau of Ju (Created by). Advances In Reconstructing Past Shelley A Kunasek. Interventions By Health Professionals Ilene Warner-Maron. Browse by Subjects: Accounting. Algebra.