The wine making process or the so called vinification is something which has been around for thousands of years starting in the Mediterranean basin. Winemaking is a natural process in which Mother nature provides everything that is needed (grapes, sun, fermentation): humans just have to embellish and perfect the whole process. Anyway winemaking is not only art: it has a lot to do with science too. You can potentially make a bad wine from good grapes, but you’ll never make a good wine from bad grapes.
