The Gift of Doubt is a contemporary novel set in a rural coastal region of New Zealand, the far north. Two characters are juxtaposed in their concern for aspects of the community around them, most significantly in their concern for a young P addict. The novel is narrated in 3rd person limited and... Read more

Abstract
The Gift of Doubt is a contemporary novel set in a rural coastal region of New Zealand, the far north. Two characters are juxtaposed in their concern for aspects of the community around them, most significantly in their concern for a young P addict. The novel is narrated in 3rd person limited and... Read more

Keywords
Gift; Doubt

Date
2014

Item Type
Thesis

Supervisor(s)
Johnson, Mike

Degree Name
Master of Creative Writing

Publisher
Auckland University of Technology
Theory into Practice An Elective Course for 3rd Year Students (First Semester) The present course, with its combined theories and critical practice, is an attempt to funnel students into the proper agenda for contemporary literary studies. Our approach to central issues of the theoretical matrix into which any interpretation is inescapably embedded cuts across several trends of literary theory, ranging from New Criticism to postmodernist context-bound cultural narratives.