Description
The complete full-text of a seminal book for Holocaust studies, The Holocaust Chronicle. The site contains every word of the main text, as well as the index and all of the images from the print edition. The information within was gathered and fact-checked by top Holocaust scholars, and covers everything 1933-1945, beginning with the restrictive laws passed when Hitler took power to the deaths of at least six million Jews, Gypsies, Freemasons, homosexuals, Jehovah's Witnesses, prisoners of war, Communists, and others.

ISBN
978-0785329633

Publication Date
9-1-2000

Publisher
Publications International, Ltd.

City
Lincolnwood, IL

Keywords
Holocaust, shoa, Holocaust Chronicle

Disciplines
European History | History of Religions of Western Origin | Jewish Studies

Recommended Citation

Peer Reviewed

Copyright
Publications International, Ltd.
studies had written about British historian-turned-denier David Irving, who manipulated documents and misrepresented data, “to reach historically untenable conclusions.” Irving sued in the United Kingdom and under British law the burden of proof—and by extension the veracity of the Holocaust—fell upon Lipstadt and her publishing team to defend.