A Theology of the Eucharist Brevint and the Wesleys,

First published in Latin in 1699, John Craige's Theology represents a rare early attempt to introduce mathematical reasoning into moral and theological dispute. Craige's effort to determine the earliest possible date of the Apocalypse earned him ridicule as an eccentric and a crank. Yet, Richard Nash argues, the intensity of the response to Craige's work testifies to how widely felt the conflict was between the old and newly emergent notions of probability.

THE THEOLOGY OF JOHN ZIZIOULAS

John Zizioulas is widely recognised as the most significant Orthodox theologian of the late 20th century. This book examines the intellectual career of St John Fisher (1469-1535), the early sixteenth-century bishop of Rochester in his Christian Doctrines in Islamic Theology (History of Christian-Muslim Relations).
