Reconsidering the concept of therapeutic landscapes in JD Salinger's The Catcher in the Rye

It's terrible." - J.D. Salinger, The Catcher in the Rye, Ch. 3. "When I really worry about something, I don't just fool around. "There isn't any night club in the world you can sit in for a long time unless you can at least buy some liquor and get drunk. Or unless you're with some girl that really knocks you out." - J.D. Salinger, The Catcher in the Rye, Ch. 13. "Goddam money. It always ends up making you blue as hell." - J.D. Salinger, The Catcher in the Rye, Ch. 15. Catcher in The Rye Vocabulary.
