A SEMANTIC ANALYSIS ON CELINE DION’S SONG IN BEAUTY AND THE BEAST, HOW DOES A MOMENT LAST FOREVER, AND A NEW DAY HAS COME

Abstract

The purpose of this semantic analysis is to know and be able to practice the role of diction choice in communication with the accompaniment of learning the use of language in semantics. This analysis was started at July 10, 2018. The approach used in this analysis is the descriptive qualitative approach in which it is used to find the indication, facts and the absolute events. Therefore, this analysis focused on analyzing the texts in the lyrics and providing data in words data description. The data of the analysis is from three songs in which they are in different album. The first to be analyzed in the lyrics was the lexical meaning and then followed by the contextual meaning where it focused more on the lexical meaning of each lyric. The result of the analysis showed that the lyrics of the three songs contain a deep context of social life relation. Besides, both lexical and contextual meanings are not closely related in the analysis and it means that the contextual meaning of the lyrics plays more value in the analysis.
