Image

George Jones, 1786-1869, British, The Passing of the Great Emancipation Act, ca. 1829, Oil on board, Yale Center for British Art, Paul Mellon Collection

Related Guides

- Caribbean Collections at the Yale University Library by Jana Krentz  Last Updated Apr 2, 2019  273 views this year
- British History Guide by Todd Gilman  Last Updated Feb 19, 2019  176 views this year
- Early Modern British History by Todd Gilman  Last Updated Dec 5, 2018  666 views this year
- Nineteenth Century British History by Todd Gilman  Last Updated Dec 6, 2018  696 views this year
- Twentieth Century British History by Michael Printy  Last Updated Dec 5, 2018  443 views this year
Manuscript Sources

- Barrington (Samuel) Letterbooks
  Two letterbooks of incoming correspondence kept by Admiral Samuel Barrington during his command in the West Indies as Rear Admiral of the White. Correspondents include members of the Admiralty Board; junior officers; Admiral John Byron, who superseded Barrington as commander; officers of the French Navy, including Admirals de Bouillé and d'Estaing; government officials from various West Indian islands.

- Boswell Collection Addition
  The papers primarily document the administration of the debt-burdened estate of Auchinleck after the death of Sir Alexander Boswell in 1822. In addition, there are letters by Charles Douglas, a planter in Jamaica, concerning many aspects of his life and career, such as his ownership of slaves and opinions about slavery, immigrant life in Jamaica, and the impact of the Napoleonic Wars on the Caribbean.

Important Databases

- Annual Register
  The Annual Register is a year-by-year record of British and world events covering 1758 to the present and including contemporary opinion, historical context and biographical information. From the American War of Independence, through western industrialisation and world wars, The Annual Register has chronicled and reported events across the globe from the perspective of a contemporary witness. The online version of The Annual Register enables cross-searching of volumes.

- House of Commons Parliamentary Papers (ProQuest)
  With all collections enabled, HCPP now includes over 200,000 House of Commons sessional papers from 1715 to the present, with supplementary material back to 1688. HCPP delivers page images and searchable full text for each paper, along with detailed indexing. HCPP is currently complete from 1801-2006. Records and papers from recent sessions of Parliament will continue to be added on a regular basis.

- Eighteenth Century Collections Online (ECCO)
  Eighteenth Century Collections Online gives access the digital images of 150,000 books published in the British Isles during the 18th Century. A great resource for virtually any topic.

General Databases

- British History Online.
  British History Online digital library contains some of the core printed primary and secondary sources for the medieval and modern history of the British Isles.

- Irish History Online.
  Irish History Online is a guide to what has been written about the history of Ireland from earliest times to the present. It has been established in association with the Royal Historical Society. Bibliography of British and Irish History and London's Past Online. IHO contains items, drawn from Writings on Irish History from 1936 to 2002, plus all the Irish material currently held on the online Royal Historical Society Bibliography.

- Digital Library of the Caribbean
  The Digital Library of the Caribbean (dLOC) is a cooperative digital library for resources from and about the Caribbean and circum-Caribbean. dLOC provides access to digitized versions of Caribbean cultural, historical and research materials currently held in archives, libraries, and private collections.

- Dictionary of National Biography.
  The Oxford Dictionary of National Biography is the premier source for biographical information on persons connected with the British Isles from all periods of history. The qualifications for inclusion are that subjects not be living, that they inhabited or were connected with the British Isles, and that they were noteworthy.

- Dictionary of Irish Biography.
  The Dictionary of Irish Biography, a collaborative project between Cambridge University Press and the Royal Irish Academy, is the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical dictionary yet published for Ireland. It contains 9,014 signed biographical articles which describe and assess the careers of subjects in all fields of endeavour, including politics, law, religion, literature, journalism, architecture, painting, music, the stage, science, medicine, engineering, entertainment and sport.

- Mundus: Gateway to Missionary Collections in the United Kingdom
  The Mundus Gateway is a web-based guide to more than four hundred collections of overseas missionary materials held in the United Kingdom. These materials, comprising the archives of British missionary societies, collections of personal papers, printed matter, photographs, other visual materials and artefacts, are held in a large number of libraries, record offices and other institutions in England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales.

- British Humanities Index (CSA).
  An international abstracting and indexing tool for research in the humanities, BHI indexes over 320 internationally respected humanities journals and weekly magazines published in the UK and other English speaking countries, as well as quality newspapers published in the UK, including the Economist, the Financial Times, the Guardian, the Independent, the Observer, and the Times.

- Bibliography of British and Irish History.
  The Bibliography of British and Irish History (BBIH) provides bibliographic data on historical writing dealing with the British Isles, and with the British Empire and Commonwealth, during all periods for which written documentation is available - from 55BC to the present. All titles included in The Royal Historical Society Bibliography on CD-ROM (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 1998) are included in the database (with the exception of unpublished theses).

- Index to Theses ... Accepted for Higher Degrees by the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland.
  The Index to Theses provides total bibliographic control of all theses ever produced by British and Irish universities (1716 to the present). Access is by author, title, university, degree, year, and keyword. Abstracts are included for titles written since 1970. Full text is not provided, but copies of the dissertations may be requested through interlibrary loan.

- Victorian Database Online.
  Search over 100,000 records listing books, articles, and dissertation abstracts published from 1945 to 2002 on every field of nineteenth-century British studies.
- Baldwin Family Papers.
  The papers detail the personal lives and professional careers of several generations and family lines of the Baldwin family. The legal, political, and business activities of family members in Connecticut, New York, and elsewhere are documented. Included in the papers of Simeon E. Baldwin (1840-1927) is a letter from Charles C. Painter concerning a committee appointed by the National Council of Congregational Churches to consider Indian education, 1884 Jan 16.

- American Indian Collection
  An artificial collection of correspondence, writings, photographs, and miscellaneous relating to American Indians, including the Mohegan Indians of Connecticut, 1740-1750. Other items include an Iroquois language dictionary and essays such as "Geronimo and His Band in Exile," by Marion E. Stephens, "The Indian River Village Site, Milford, Connecticut," and a narrative on Joseph Morgan Wilcox.

- Payne (Ralph), Baron Lavington Papers
  The papers document the West Indian portions of the economic fortunes and political career of the sugar planter and politician Ralph Payne, first Baron Lavington.

- Vetric (Alexander Orr) Collection
  The collection consists of ships' logs, nineteenth-century cargo manifests of Connecticut ships on fishing voyages, and the papers of ships sailing to the West Indies for rum and sugar and to the Antarctic on sealing expeditions.

- Senhouse papers, 1764-1790.
  The papers consist of account books, legal records, correspondence, and memoirs of members of the Senhouse family, largely in connection with their plantations and trade in the West Indies. This is film 97406 of British Records Relating to America in Microform.

- Thistlewood Collection
  Spanning more than thirty-five years, from before his arrival in Jamaica in 1750 through his death in 1786, the archive comprises some 92 volumes of diaries and notebooks. A slave owner, Thistlewood used his diaries to document his daily experiences as a planter over three decades. These 37 volumes, arranged by year, leave a detailed portrait of the racial, sexual, economic, and other realities of plantation life in Jamaica in the mid-eighteenth century.

- Aiken (William Appleton) Papers
  The papers consist of correspondence, writings, research materials, and autograph letters relating to the literary work of William Appleton Aiken on the life of Daniel Fitch, second Earl of Nottingham. Includes many boxes of transcripts of 17th and 18th century manuscripts (including some destroyed in World War II).

- Andrews (Charles McLean) Papers
  The papers consist of correspondence, research files (including notes, transcripts, and photocopies of historical documents), writings, photograph albums, and memorabilia relating to the personal life and professional career of American historian Charles McLean Andrews; his wife, Evangeline Walker Andrews; and other family members. Includes many transcripts from colonial and British archives.

- Backus Family Papers
  The papers are composed of correspondence, legal and financial papers, and memorabilia of several descendants and relatives of Samuel (1693-1740) and Elizabeth Tracey Backus of Norwich, Connecticut. Papers of Samuel Backus's grandson James, his partner Rufus Backus, and James's brother-in-law Dudley Woodbridge concern mercantile establishments, commerce, and shipping in Norwich following the Revolutionary War.

- Banks (Joseph) Papers
  The papers consist of correspondence, writings, notes, and other papers documenting the personal life and professional career of Sir Joseph Banks, a British naturalist and explorer. Correspondence with stewards and landowners in Lincolnshire and elsewhere detail Banks' interest in agriculture and farming. Other papers relate to family estates, to Banks' scientific investigations and to his interest in the exploration of Africa and other regions.

- Beers Family Papers
  Journal, military papers, and financial records relating to the American Revolution as kept by Nathan Beers, paymaster and clothier of a Connecticut regiment. Also in the collection is a bill issued to Isaac Beers, and an autograph album (1860) with the signatures of Jefferson Davis, James Buchanan, William H. Seward and others.

- Bellamy (Joseph) Papers
  The papers consist of correspondence, sermons and manuscripts of Joseph Bellamy, theologian and minister. In 1738 Bellamy became minister of the new parish of Bethlehem, Connecticut, where he remained until his death. He was a disciple of Jonathan Edwards and a prominent advocate of the New Light theology in the Great Awakening.

- Benjamin (Samuel) Papers
  The papers consist of correspondence, diaries, poems, orders and receipts concerning Samuel Benjamin's service in the Massachusetts infantry during the Revolutionary War. Included also is a printed version of Benjamin's diaries (1778-1780) describing maneuvers around West Point, New York and the Yorktown campaign.

- Boyer (James) Collection
  A collection of photostatic copies of letters (1779-1784) written to James Boyer, artilleryman and commissary officer, during the Revolutionary War. Correspondents include his brother, Peter Boyer, Samuel Hodgdon (1745-1824), Richard Frothingham (1748-1819), Ebenezer Stevens (1713-1798) and Henry Knox (1750-1806). Also included are photostatic copies of miscellaneous documents and papers "found in the Boston Post Office" relating to the Revolution.

- Bromfield Family Papers
  Correspondence, legal documents, business and other papers relating to the Bromfield family of Boston and collateral families. The papers relate primarily to Henry Bromfield (1727-1820), his descendants and their families. There is also material relating to Richard Clarke (1711-1795), a Boston merchant who was involved in the pre-Revolutionary difficulties about the tax on tea.

- Brown (John and Preston) Papers
  Most important are the eleven letters from John Brown, member of the Continental Congress and senator from Kentucky (1792-1805), which discuss the Constitution, the Missouri Compromise and the episode in Kentucky history known as the "Spanish Conspiracy". Margaretta (Mason) Brown is represented by a commonplace book, reading list and poems.

- Burnet Family Papers
  These papers pertain to the interrelated Burnet, West, and Williams families descended from Gilbert Burnet, Bishop of Salisbury, England. Among the papers are the personal correspondence of Richard West (1716-1742), poet; of his sister, Mary West Williams (1715-1800); of her son, the Rev. John Henry Williams (b. 1747); and of her father, Richard West, Sr. (d. 1726), lawyer, playwright and statesman; family genealogies; legal papers; and other material.

- Burr family (Burr family papers)
Correspondence, legal documents, financial papers and other items chiefly relating to the history of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Virginia. A large Hay (Southard) Collection

The papers consist of correspondence, business and legal documents, sermons, lectures, and other writings of the Goodrich family, descendants of Elizur Goodrich Family Papers

The originals of these transcripts were formerly owned by William A. Reed and are now in the Clements Library of the University of Michigan.

Thirty-one manuscript letters to Nathanael Greene, one photostatic copy and two volumes of typed transcripts of letters and Revolutionary War era documents. Letters from Narcissus Graham to his family chiefly about his unhappiness in the Army, which he joined in 1776 and left in 1783. Graham (Narcissus) Papers the collection relates to Edward Whiting Gilman (1823-1900), his family and his work as a clergyman and foreign secretary of the American Bible Society. Gilman Family Papers

Correspondence of William Frost details his political activity in the Maine Territory, Jeffersonian politics in Massachusetts, and the Embargo Act. Material relating to Edward Whiting Gilman (1823-1900), his family and his work as a clergyman and foreign secretary of the American Bible Society. Frost Family Papers description of the military developments in the French-Indian War for the month of July, 1759. Other church papers, a notebook kept by Forward while at Yale College (1752-1753), and nine diaries (1759-1814) mostly with brief entries. There is one Forward (Justus) Papers

The papers consist of correspondence, financial records, addresses, sermons, writings, photographs, and other memorabilia of Yale President Timothy Dwight (1752-1817) and his family. Relatives in the Edwards, Hooker, Lyman, Strong, Woodbridge, and Woolsey families are represented. The largest quantity of correspondence documents the family life of John William Dwight, a fertilizer manufacturer. Papers of Timothy Dwight (1752-1817) and Timothy Dwight (1828-1916) concern Yale University. Edwards (Pierpont) Papers fourteen deeds for land in North Haven and a description of a churn invented by him. Correspondence, diaries, financial and legal papers, inventories, deeds, and accounts of members of the Pierpoint family of North Haven, Connecticut. The principal figure is Daniel Pierpont, business man and town clerk of North Haven whose papers include an account book kept while building a house (1846), fourteen deeds for land in North Haven and a description of a churn invented by him. Pierpont Family Papers

Diaries of Jacob Eliot with marginal notes relating to people in Boston, Massachusetts, and Lebanon, Connecticut, 18th century preachers, books, sermons, a meeting of the General Association of Connecticut, the Great Awakening, and the Trumbull and Williams families. Includes papers of Ellsworth Eliot (1864-1945), physician, of New York City, with material he collected in writing books. Eliot (Jacob) Family Papers

The records consist of memoranda and reports documenting the activities and operations of the Faculty of Yale College. Included are minutes from meetings of the faculty and executive committee, committee reports, attendance books, committee membership lists, and financial papers. Faculty of Yale College Records

The records consist of correspondence and other papers relating to members of the Burr family of Fairfield, Connecticut. Principal figures represented in the papers include Aaron Burr (1756-1836), soldier, politician and third vice-president of the United States; and his father, the Reverend Aaron Burr (1716-1757), scholar, clergyman, and second president of the College of New Jersey (later Princeton). Burr Family Papers

The papers of nine members of the Cogswell family and related branches, spanning nearly 200 years, are included in this collection. The principal elements are three sets of correspondence: the letters between the Reverend James Cogswell and his son, James, which deal with the son's experiences as a surgeon during the American Revolution. Cogswell Family Papers

The papers include correspondence, sermons, and legal and financial papers of Alfred, Ebenezeer, Henry (1741-1830), Henry (1758-1843), Horace, Naphtali, and William Daggett. Naphtali Daggett was president of Yale College from 1766 to 1777. Deeds (quit claims) of William Daggett form the bulk of the collection. Daggett Family Papers

The records consist of correspondence, memoirs, notes, observations, and other writings of Thomas Clap concerning Yale College. Clap (Thomas), President of Yale College, Records

The records include correspondence, sermons, and legal and financial papers of Alfred, Ebenezeer, Henry (1741-1830), Henry (1758-1843), Horace, Naphtali, and William Daggett. Naphtali Daggett was president of Yale College from 1766 to 1777. Deeds (quit claims) of William Daggett form the bulk of the collection. Daggett Family Papers

The collection consists of correspondence, recommendations, memoranda, and committee and program files documenting the activities and operations of the Yale Department of History. Diaries (Miscellaneous) Collection.

The records consist of correspondence, financial records, addresses, sermons, writings, photographs, and other memorabilia of Yale President Timothy Dwight (1752-1817) and his family. Relatives in the Edwards, Hooker, Lyman, Strong, Woodbridge, and Woolsey families are represented. The largest quantity of correspondence documents the family life of John William Dwight, a fertilizer manufacturer. Papers of Timothy Dwight (1752-1817) and Timothy Dwight (1828-1916) concern Yale University. Edwards (Pierpont) Papers

The papers consist primarily of sermons preached by Justus Forward between 1754 and 1813. Also included are correspondence, largely on church matters, other church papers, a notebook kept by Forward while at Yale College (1752-1753), and nine diaries (1759-1814) mostly with brief entries. There is one description of the military developments in the French-Indian War for the month of July, 1759. Forward (Justus) Papers

The papers contain correspondence, account books, and other material documenting the personal lives and professional careers of members of the Frost family. Correspondence of William Frost details his political activity in the Maine Territory, Jeffersonian politics in Massachusetts, and the Embargo Act. Material relating to Joshua Lawrence Chamberlain's Civil War duties is scarce. Frost Family Papers

Correspondence, letters, financial records, photographs, clippings, and other papers relating to the Gilman and Coit families of New England. The bulk of the collection relates to Edward Whiting Gilman (1823-1900), his family and his work as a clergyman and foreign secretary of the American Bible Society. Gilman Family Papers

Letters from Narcissus Graham to his family chiefly about his unhappiness in the Army, which he joined in 1776 and left in 1783. Graham (Narcissus) Papers

Thirty-one manuscript letters to Nathanael Greene, one photostatic copy and two volumes of typed transcripts of letters and Revolutionary War era documents. The originals of these transcripts were formerly owned by William A. Reed and are now in the Clements Library of the University of Michigan. Greene (Nathanael) Papers

The papers consist of correspondence, business and legal documents, sermons, lectures, and other writings of the Goodrich family, descendants of Elizur Goodrich (1734-1797), and members of related Webster, Coe, Ellsworth, and Fowler families. The bulk of the correspondence concerns Chauncey Allen Goodrich's publication and copyright of an abridgement and revision of Webster's dictionary and the resulting disagreements among the heirs of Noah Webster. Goodrich Family Papers

Correspondence, legal documents, financial papers and other items chiefly relating to the history of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Virginia. A large Hay (Southard) Collection

This collections contains correspondence and other papers relating to members of the Burr family of Fairfield, Connecticut. Principal figures represented in the papers include Aaron Burr (1756-1836), soldier, politician and third vice-president of the United States; and his father, the Reverend Aaron Burr (1716-1757), scholar, clergyman, and second president of the College of New Jersey (later Princeton).
Manuscript Sources

- Hillhouse Family Papers
  The papers consist of correspondence, deeds, account books, estate records, architectural drawings, legal papers, notebooks, commonplace books, letterbooks, scrapbooks, daybooks, and miscellaneous papers documenting the personal lives and professional careers of three generations of the Hillhouse family of New Haven, Connecticut and New York.

- Hooker Family Papers
  The papers contain correspondence, financial and legal records, genealogical material, account books, maps, autograph albums, scrapbooks, ships' logs, and memorabilia from several generations of the Hooker family of Farmington, Connecticut. Early family records contain correspondence and documents relating to the American Revolution.

- Johnson (Obadiah) Papers
  The bulk of the collection is made up of correspondence, notebooks, military commissions and other military papers, reflecting his service during the American Revolution. Also in the papers are letters (1802-1804) from his son, mostly relating to pensions for members of the Twenty-first regiment. Other members of the family represented in the collection include his great-great-grandfather, Edward Johnson, his father, Obadiah Johnson and his second wife, Lucy Cady Spaulding.

- Johnson Family Papers.
  (1631-1987) In addition to extensive correspondence between Johnson family members, the papers contain material relating to Connecticut and New York politics in the colonial and Revolutionary War periods, and religion, land development, and Indian affairs in the nineteenth century. Additions to the papers include family correspondence, sketchbooks of Katharine Livingston Bayard Johnson, and a diary and account books of Sarah Dwight Woolsey Johnson.

- Knollenberg (Bernhard) Collection
  Correspondence, diaries, manuscripts of writings, narratives, biographical sketches, documents, reports, addresses, deeds, tax receipts, printed material, and other papers relating to early American colonial settlement, the American Revolution, settlement of the West, slavery, the Civil War, Spanish-American War, women's suffrage, and various political questions.

- Leffingwell Family Papers
  Correspondence, diaries, legal and financial records and memorabilia by and about the descendants of Lieutenant Thomas Leffingwell, one of the founders of Norwich, Connecticut. The major groups of papers are those of Christopher Leffingwell (1734-1810), a merchant in Norwich and William Leffingwell (1765-1834), a stockbroker in New York and later a resident of New Haven. These groups contain papers on legal, financial and business transactions. Family correspondence during the Revolutionary War.

---

British and Irish Women's Letters and Diaries 1500-1950 (Alexander Street Press).

British and Irish Women's Letters and Diaries (BWLD) includes the immediate experiences of 91 women, as revealed in diaries and letters. Particular care has been taken to index this material so that it can be searched more thoroughly than ever before. The collection includes more than 100,000 pages of primary materials spanning more than 300 years. Each source has been carefully chosen using leading bibliographies. The collection also includes biographies and an extensive annotated bibliography.

- East Meets West: Original Records of Western Traders, Travellers, Missionaries, and Diplomats to 1852.
  Documents from William Adams (1564-1620), Englebert Kaempfer (1651-1716), John Scatteredgood (1681-1723), Isaac Titsingh (1740?-1812), Heinrich Julius Klapproth (1783-1835), and East India Company: Ships’ logs, ledgers and receipt books, 1605-1701.

- Ecclesiastical Authority in England: Church Court Records, c. 1400-c. 1660, 1373-1700
  Also includes British Foreign Office Files for China, 1949-1976. Events covered are foundation of the People’s Republic, the deaths of Zhou Enlai and Mao, the arrest of the Gang of Four and the end of the Cultural Revolution in 1976, population issues, the Marriage Law, the Agrarian Reform Law, Sino-Soviet relations, and British commercial policy in China.

- Records of a Scottish village: Lasswade, 1650-1750.
  The period covered by the parish records of Lasswade (1650-1750), in the Lothian region of Scotland, was one of great social and economic change in lowland Scotland. Lasswade was chosen for this project as a particularly well-documented parish which, owing to its proximity to Edinburgh, highlights these changes. The records consist of the Poll Tax, giving information on the size, structure, wealth and distribution of Scotland's population.

- Records of an English village: Earls Colne, 1400-1750.
  This collection assembles key historical documents of the administrative district, or parish, of Earls Colne. Included are manorial records, account books, a diary, and early 16th-century maps.

- Sixteenth- and Seventeenth-Century Newsletter.
  Sixteenth- and seventeenth-century newsletters that provide the English perspective on European events.

- Sixteenth- and Seventeenth-Century Manuscripts from the Rawlinson Collection in the Bodleian Library, Oxford.
  Manuscripts from 1540 to 1700 covering Parliamentary proceedings, political, religious and economic problems, royal projects, situations in both Ireland and Scotland, and naval reforms. Also included are the proceedings of the High Court for trying the King.

- Baldwin Family Papers.
  The papers detail the personal lives and professional careers of several generations and family lines of the Baldwin family. The legal, political, and business activities of family members in Connecticut, New York, and elsewhere are documented. Included in the papers of Simeon E. Baldwin (1840-1927) is a letter from Charles C. Painter concerning a committee appointed by the National Council of Congregational Churches to consider Indian education, 1884 Jan 16.

- Knollenberg (Bernhard) Collection
  Correspondence, diaries, manuscripts of writings, narratives, biographical sketches, documents, reports, addresses, deeds, tax receipts, printed material, and other papers relating to early American colonial settlement, the American Revolution, settlement of the West, slavery, the Civil War, Spanish-American War, women's suffrage, and various political questions.

- Boswell Collection
  The Boswell Collection contains the correspondence, diaries, and manuscripts of author James Boswell; estate records, letters, personal and professional papers, and other materials documenting the lives and careers of ten generations of Boswells and their possession of the barony of Auchinleck; and...
- Crawford Theater Collection
  The collection consists of playbills and programs, photographs in a variety of formats, engravings, posters, clippings, and other printed material which document the performing arts in the United States and throughout the world from the seventeenth through the twentieth centuries. Material relating to dramatic performance forms the nucleus of the collection, but dance, opera, motion picture, circus, radio, and television performances are also represented.

- Greg (Walter Wilson) Papers
  The papers contain correspondence, printed material, writings and other papers documenting the scholarly career of Walter Wilson Greg, particularly his work on the Bibliography of the English Printed Drama (BEPD), his book reviews and his periodical articles concerning the editing of Shakespeare.

- Caribbean Collection
  A collection of correspondence; government documents, including legal cases, reports, decrees and proclamations; church documents; and writings from the Caribbean islands (Cuba, Jamaica, Santo Domingo, and the Virgin Islands) on civil, military, religious, economic and social topics.

- Strafford, Thomas Wentworth, Earl of. 1593-1641.

- Diaries (Miscellaneous) Collection.
  An artificial collection of diaries relating to Connecticut and other states and regions in the United States. Topics including farming, religion, military life, student life, travel, and the weather are documented. Included in Vol. 30 is the copy of a diary of an ensign in the French and Indian War, 1759-62 in Crown Point, New York. The original is in the library at Cornwall, CT.

- Johnson Family Papers.
  (1631-1987) In addition to extensive correspondence between Johnson family members, the papers contain material relating to Connecticut and New York politics in the colonial and Revolutionary War periods, and religion, land development, and Indian affairs in the nineteenth century. Additions to the papers include family correspondence, sketchbooks of Katharine Livingston Bayard Johnson, and a diary and account books of Sarah Dwight Woolsey Johnson.

- Woolsey Family Papers.
  The papers document three generations of the Woolsey family. Included are five letters from Melancthon Taylor Woolsey (1720-58) to Benjamin Woolsey concerning the fighting and living conditions in the French and Indian War as Colonel of the 2nd Battalion, 1758.

- Eliz Yale collection (M&A)
  A miscellaneous collection of documents, printed or photocopied, by and about Eliz Yale. Included are records of the Agency of Fort St. George (Madras, India), 1679-1692, during the years of Eliz Yale's governorship, biographical and genealogical materials, copies of correspondence (1699-1719) with Catherine and Eliz Nicks and material on Madras, India and Wrexham, Wales.

- Davenport (John) Papers
  The papers consist of photostatic copies of John Davenport letters collected by Isabel M. Calder and published in her Letters of John Davenport, Puritan Divine (1937).

- Gilman Family Papers
  Correspondence, diaries, writings, financial records, photographs, clippings, and other papers relating to the Gilman and Coit families of New England. The bulk of the collection relates to Edward Whiting Gilman (1823-1900), his family and his work as a clergyman and foreign secretary of the American Bible Society.

- Hooker Family Papers
  The papers contain correspondence, financial and legal records, genealogical material, account books, maps, autograph albums, scrapbooks, ships' logs, and memorabilia from several generations of the Hooker family of Farmington, Connecticut. Early family records contain correspondence and documents relating to the American Revolution.

- Johnson (Obadiah) Papers
  The bulk of the collection is made up of correspondence, notebooks, military commissions and other military papers, reflecting his service during the American Revolution. Also in the papers are letters (1802-1804) from his son, mostly relating to pensions for members of the Twenty-first regiment. Other members of the family represented in the collection include his great-great grandfather, Edward Johnson, his father, Obadiah Johnson and his second wife, Lucy Cady Spaulding.

- Leffingwell Family Papers
  Correspondence, diaries, legal and financial records and memorabilia by and about the descendants of Lieutenant Thomas Leffingwell, one of the founders of Norwich, Connecticut. The major groups of papers are those of Christopher Leffingwell (1734-1810), a merchant in Norwich and William Leffingwell (1765-1834), a stockbroker in New York and later a resident of New Haven. These groups contain papers on legal, financial and business transactions. Family correspondence during the Revolutionary War

- Trumbull (Benjamin) Papers
  The papers contain correspondence, bills and receipts, sermons, church papers, writings, and miscellaneous documenting the personal life, religious career, and literary work of Benjamin Trumbull. Sermons include material on a wide range of religious, historical, political, and social topics. Correspondence and other papers include material relating to Trumbull's family life, student years, religious responsibilities, and writings on Connecticut history, divorce, and land settlement.

- Wetmore Family Papers
  The papers consist of materials relating to George Peabody Wetmore and his family. Correspondence and other papers document the lives of several of Wetmore's ancestors and reflect his interest in New England history. The papers also include letter books and account books of the mercantile firms of Prosper Wetmore & Brothers and Joseph and Joshua Grafton.

- Wood (Thomas) Family Papers
  The papers consist of personal, business, and family letters written by members of the Wood family of Littleton, Middlesex, England. Correspondence between Thomas Wood and John Pack, in London, makes up the majority of the papers. There are also letters to Thomas Wood from his sons.

- Yale (Eliz) Collection
  A miscellaneous collection of documents, printed or photocopied, by and about Eliz Yale. Included are records of the Agency of Fort St. George (Madras, India), 1679-1692, during the years of Eliz Yale's governorship, biographical and genealogical materials, copies of correspondence (1699-1719) with Catherine and Eliz Nicks and material on Madras, India and Wrexham, Wales. In the few family papers are a copy of the will of Thomas Yale (1619), and the "Recipe book" of Lady Bab Borth.

- Yale Center for Parliamentary History Records
  The records consist of correspondence, NEH proposals and reports, board minutes, financial documentation, and related materials documenting the founding, organization, and operation of the Yale Center for Parliamentary History.
Microform Collections

- Yale Objects Collection
  The collection consists of objects and memorabilia related to Yale including artwork, apparel, silver and porcelain place settings, building hardware, engraving plates, and fraternity insignia.

- Aiken (William Appleton) Papers
  The papers consist of correspondence, writings, research materials, and autograph letters relating to the literary work of William Appleton Aiken on the life of Daniel Fitch, second Earl of Nottingham. Includes many boxes of transcripts of 17th and 18th century manuscripts (including some destroyed in World War II).

- Andrews (Charles McLean) Papers
  The papers consist of correspondence, research files (including notes, transcripts, and photocopies of historical documents), writings, photograph albums, and memorabilia relating to the personal life and professional career of American historian Charles McLean Andrews; his wife, Evangeline Walker Andrews; and other family members. Includes many transcripts from colonial and British archives.

- English Miscellaneous Manuscripts Collection
  An artificial collection of correspondence, financial, legal, and government documents, political memoirs, military records, literary manuscripts, and autographs relating to Great Britain, 1362-1945. An anonymous essay about Charlotte Corday, memoirs attributed to George Grenville, and writings by George Grote and Sir Henry Maine are included.

- Australasian biographical archive

- Spanish biographical archive

- Bromfield Family Papers
  Correspondence, legal documents, and financial records of the Bromfield family of Boston and collateral families. The papers relate primarily to Henry Bromfield (1727-1820), his descendants and their families. There is also material relating to Richard Clarke (1711-1795), a Boston merchant who was involved in the pre-Revolutionary difficulties about the tax on tea.

- Annual departmental reports relating to Kenya and the East Africa High Commission, 1903/4-1963
  The reports in this collection are grouped together under nine main headings: Administration, Finance, Judicial and Police, Natural Resources, Social Services, Transport and Public Works, Communications and Post Office Savings, Commerce and Miscellaneous. Yale holds only 11 out of 118 reels.

- Archives of the British Conservative Party, 1946-1964.
  Archives from the British Conservative Party for 1946-1964 including pamphlets, committee minutes, and campaign guides. Conservative ideology relating to unemployment, housing, industry, agriculture, foreign affairs, and education as well as the rise of the Labour Party are covered.

- Archives of the Central British Fund for World Jewish Relief, 1933-1960

- Australasian biographical archive

- Australian biographical archive

- Australasian biographical archive

- Archives from the British Conservative Party for 1946-1964 including pamphlets, committee minutes, and campaign guides. Conservative ideology relating to unemployment, housing, industry, agriculture, foreign affairs, and education as well as the rise of the Labour Party are covered.

- Archives of the Central British Fund for World Jewish Relief, 1933-1960

- Australasian biographical archive

- British biographical archive
  Included in this British biographical archive are biographical entries from 324 reference books originally published between 1601 and 1929. Particular care was taken to include women in this collection, and there are many cross references. Like the other Saur biographical archives, the first fiches provide the title pages and prefaces from the source works. The entries are arranged in one alphabetical sequence.

- British general election campaign guides: 1885...1950. (British political sources series)
  The Guides were compiled for the years 1885, 1892, 1895, 1900, 1906, 1909, 1914, 1922, 1929, 1931, 1935, 1945, and 1950. They provide a history of all major issues of the times and describe the performance of the Conservative, Labour, Liberal and Radical parties, and all significant utterances of major political figures of the period. There is often an introduction at the beginning of a Guide to provide commentary on the political issues of the year or years covered.

- British official publications not published by HMSO. 1980-
  This collection includes publications printed since the beginning of 1980 (including publications with a 1979 imprint first made available in 1980 and publications first derestricted in 1980) by over 280 organizations financed or controlled completely or partially by the British Government, which are not published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office (HMSO).

- Cabinet Papers: Complete Classes from the CAB & PREM Series in the Public Record Office: Series One. Papers Concerning Defence and Operational Subjects, 1940-1945: Winston Churchill.
  Cabinet papers from the war-time administration of Winston Churchill including materials from the Secretariat, discussions with advisors and papers concerning defense and operational subjects as both the Prime Minister and Minister of Defence. Collection includes memoranda, general papers, telegrams to international leaders including Stalin and MacArthur, papers on defence plans, papers relating to occupied Europe, submarine warfare and Anglo-American relations.

- Cabinet Papers: Complete Classes from the CAB & PREM Series in the Public Record Office: Series Three: CABinet Conclusions & Cabinet Memoranda, 1945 and Following.
  Cabinet papers from Attlee, Churchill, Eden, Macmillan, Douglas-Home governments on topics such as post-war Germany, decolonization, Cold War diplomacy, and the creation of the European Community, Anglo-American relations, European reconstruction, National Health Service, North American Treaty Organization (NATO), industrial disputes, national and international economic problems, housing developments and policy, military affairs, nuclear policy, the Suez Crisis, and domestic social policy.

- Churchill at War: The Prime Minister's Office Papers, 1940-1945: PRO Record Classes PREM 3 and PREM 4.
  Documents from the Churchill government during World War II including the papers from his roles as both Prime Minister and Minister of Defense. Collection includes annotated memoranda, discussion documents, telegrams, on wartime activities including the surrender of Germany, operations in Africa and the Balkans, and the defeat of Mussolini.

- Colonial Discourses, Series One: Women, Travel, and Empire, 1660-1914
Women authors writing about travel and the British Empire. Topics included are transforming gender roles, colonial attitudes, identity issues, colonialism, and national awareness within the colonies. Parts two and three are focused on “the Orient” including the Middle East, China, and Japan.

Colonial Discourses, Series Three: Colonial Fiction, 1650-1914
Books of fiction from Britain and Imperial India exploring colonial life, policy, and the colonial experience.

Colonial Discourses, Series Two: Imperial Adventurers and Explorers
The personal papers of Richard Burton, James Agustus Grant, and John Hanning Speke discussing the Empire and masculinity in the Empire.

Conditions and politics in occupied Western Europe: 1940-1945.
Material reproduced was selected from PRO CLASS FO 371 (General correspondence, Political) of the British Foreign Office files.

Confidential British Foreign Office Political Correspondence, China, Series 1: 1906-1919.
Political correspondence from the British Foreign Office relating to China. Topics covered in this collection are divided into four sections 1906-1908, 1909-1911, 1912-1914, 1915-1919 including post-war (Opium Wars and Boxer Rebellion) concessions, development of colonies including Hong Kong, exporting of Chinese goods, political and economic relations between the two countries, stationing of military troops, missionary activities and the development of the foreign railway.

Confidential British Foreign Office Political Correspondence. World War I.
British Foreign Office correspondence from WWI. Topics include British diplomacy, Anglo-American relations, efforts to draw the United States into the war, antecedents of Turkish entry into the war, Anglo-Balkan negotiations, inter-Balkan rivalries; collapse of Serbia, Greek politics, British failure at Gallipoli, notes on the Dardanelles Commission of Inquiry, intervention diplomacy and the United States, and diplomatic efforts to acquire allies.

Conservative Party (Great Britain)
These minutes and reports are the only extant records of the Conservative Party's Annual Conferences.

Documents from post-war European diplomacy following the European Movement. Includes pamphlets, memorandum, and literature from various organizations.

Ecclesiastical Authority in England: Church Court Records, c. 1400-c. 1660, 1373-1700
Also includes British Foreign Office Files for China, 1949-1976. Events covered are foundation of the People’s Republic, the deaths of Zhou Enlai and Mao, the arrest of the Gang of Four and the end of the Cultural Revolution in 1976, population issues, the Marriage Law, the Agrarian Reform Law, Sino-Soviet relations, and British commercial policy in China.

Empire and Commonwealth: Archives of the Royal Commonwealth Society from Cambridge
Materials concerning colonists’ relations with the native people, issues of race and empire, initial cultural contacts, cultural interchange, Commonwealth conferences for 1887-1955 and materials on colonial reform within the Empire. Sources include periodical literature, articles, conference minutes, and reports.

Government Publications Relating to Nigeria, 1862-1960
British government publications consisting of annual reports, blue books, government gazettes, trade supplements, and command records relating to Nigeria, Lagos, Southern Nigeria and the Niger Coast. Topics included are demographic information, transitional colonial government, political and social situations, sources of revenue, public works activities, legislation and laws, agriculture, wages, and the British protectorate interests.

Government publications relating to the Cape of Good Hope to 1910
Group I consists of Votes & Proceedings of the Cape House of Assembly and the Legislative Council, and Annexures to the Votes and Proceedings (including Select Committee Reports), 1854-1910. Group II is comprised of statistical registers of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, 1821-1909.

Great Britain: government documents from multiple government ministries, including the Cabinet Office, Colonial Office, Foreign Office, Home Office, War Office, and others
Comprehensive index of The Guardian Newspaper from 1842-1928. Events included are Peel’s Corn Law Bill, 1848 Revolutions, Chartist Risings, the Great Exhibition, Crimean War, Indian Mutiny, Wars with China, World War I, post World War I politics, and international events.

Independent Labour Party (Great Britain)

Ireland: Politics and Society through the Press: 1760-1922
Newspaper and journal articles describing the Irish experience under British control from the years 1760-1922. Topics addressed include accession, famine, propaganda on issues such as Repeal, Home Rule, Land League, Pernallism, Irish nationalism, Irish self-awareness, seizure and censorship of the Irish press, Orange Order, Roman Catholic Church, literary revival, economic concerns, Easter Rising, Irish Nationalism, relationship between Irish abroad and the mother country.

Newspaper and journal articles describing the Irish experience under British control from the years 1760-1922. Topics addressed include accession, famine, propaganda on issues such as Repeal, Home Rule, Land League, Pernallism, Irish nationalism, Irish self-awareness, seizure and censorship of the Irish press, Orange Order, Roman Catholic Church, literary revival, economic concerns, Easter rising, Irish Nationalism, relationship between Irish abroad and the mother country.

The personal papers of David A. Morse, Director-General of the International Labor Organization (ILO). Materials included are correspondence, reports, memoranda, subject files, speeches, articles, and interviews.

Labour Party (Great Britain)
Included in Series II are pamphlets and leaflets from the Labour Party. The documents cover the period 1900-1969 and are arranged chronologically in 5 parts. Series three of the Labour Archives has been filmed in 6 parts, 1-3 and 5-6 of which are included in this collection. Committee period, 1900-1906; Part 2 covers the early years of the Labour Party, 1906-1907; Part 3 documents the War Emergency Workers' National Committee, 1914-1918; Part 4 records the years 1906-1918 of Women’s Labour.

Labour Party (Great Britain). National Executive Committee.

Liberal Party (Great Britain).
These documents span the years between 1885 and 1972. The pamphlets and leaflets document the changing face of Liberalism from the inception of the Party, through Lloyd George, to the second half of the twentieth century.

Masculinity: Men Defining Men and Gentlemen, 1560-1918
Rare advice books, manuals and literary texts relating to masculinity between 1560 and 1918. Part 1 comprises 61 core texts from the collections of the Bodleian Library, Oxford.

- Me The Sir Winston Churchill Papers, 1874-1965: from the Churchill Archives Centre.
  Churchill's engagement in all aspects of national and international affairs over six decades of his public life as politician, soldier, journalist, wartime leader, historian and Nobel Prize winner. Collection is divided into six series:
  1. Speeches of Resonance and Power
  2. Official Papers of Government Departments
  3. Official Papers: Cabinets and Committees
  4. Personal Papers: A Family in War and Peace
  5. Public and Political Life: Party and Reform
  6. Constituency Politics

- Muriel and William Peters Collection, 1817-1968
  The collection contains material on the capture, trial, and release of the Amistad captives who were illegally sold into slavery. After seizing the ship that was taking them to the Caribbean, the Africans were captured by a U.S. Navy ship and imprisoned in New Haven, Connecticut. The Amistad Case was tried before the Supreme Court and the Court decided in favor of the Africans.

- Northern Ireland political literature.
  This collection concentrates on locally published material not easily obtainable from other sources and generally includes three categories of material, namely pamphlets, periodicals and news-sheets, and ephemera. It does not include established newspapers and periodicals, government publications, or official party organs; specifically excluded are the Dublin-based newspapers of both wings of Sinn Fein/Irish Republican Army.

- Nuclear weapons, arms control, and the threat of thermonuclear war: special studies, 1961-1995.
  This is a collection of reports, memoranda, and papers analyzing the nature and deployment of nuclear weapons, the prospects of controlling their spread, and the consequences of using them. The documents are selected holdings of the National Technical Information Service and from U.S. government departments and agencies sponsoring individual reports.

- Pamphlets and leaflets of the Social Democratic Federation and the British Socialist Party, 1883-1931.
  The SDF was the first Marxist political organization founded in Britain. This set brings together material from the individual collections at the Marx Memorial Library, London, and the International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam, to form a comprehensive collection of pamphlets and leaflets of the Social Democratic Federation and the British Socialist Party.

- Pamphlets of socialist and reform movements since 1884.
  The ILP became the largest and most influential of British socialist organizations and its history is in large part the story of the early growth of working-class parliamentary power. The material illustrates the views and attitudes of the ILP over this period. It show what was read, highlights the personal connections of the leading protagonists, and covers a wide range of social, political, and cultural concerns.

- Sex and Sexuality, 1640-1940: Literary, Medical and Sociological Perspective
  Material that relating to sex and sexuality from 1640 to 1940. Resources included are advice books, medical works, moral guides, erotic and pornographic literature, and literary critiques. Topics cover include prostitution, the sociology of sex, lesbianism, romantic friendships, and flagellation.

- Social and political status of women in Britain, 1870-1928.
  The periodicals included here are from the Newspaper Library of the British Library and cover every aspect of the surge of emancipationist activities in Britain between the passing of the Married Women's Property Act in 1870 and the gaining of full, universal suffrage in 1928.

- Sources for the history of the British in the Middle East, 1800-1978.
  This is a catalog of the Private Papers Collection in the Middle East Centre, St. Anthony College, Oxford, whose particular strengths include Palestine during the British Mandate, and Saudi Arabia and other Gulf states from World War I on. Not only is precise information given on individual items in the collection, but also there is information on other collections of relevance to the modern Middle East.

- The Foundations of Modern Europe. Series One: The Archives of the European Movement.
  Documents from post-war European diplomacy following the European Movement. Includes pamphlets, memorandum, and literature from various organizations.

- The Guardian Index, 1842-1928
  Comprehensive index of The Guardian Newspaper from 1842-1928. Events included are Peel's Corn Law Bill, 1848 Revolutions, Chartist Risings, the Great Exhibition, Crimean War, Indian Mutiny, Wars with China, World War I, post World War I politics, and international events.

- The Guardian Index, 1929-1972.
  Comprehensive index of The Guardian Newspaper from 1929-1972. Events included are wars, abduction, independence movements in India, World War II, Cold War, Post-war Reconstruction, and creation of the welfare state, decolonization and international affairs.

- The Guardian Index, 1973-1985.
  Comprehensive index of The Guardian Newspaper from 1973-1985. Events included are European Economic Community (EEC), wars, domestic and international politics.

- The Left in Britain.

- Women and the labour movement: conference reports and journals of the Women's Labour League and the Labour Party Women's Organisation, 1906-1977.
  The Women's Labour League was founded in 1906 as a broadly based feminist group with representation from the Labour Party, trade unions, and socialist and cooperative societies. It made investigations, published a newsletter for many decades, and served as a pressure group in such areas as women's work and its regulation and safety; maternal and child care; education; housing; and institutional care for the elderly and disabled.

- World Employment Programme (WEP) research working papers in microfiche form.
  Founded in 1969, the WEP is a program of the International Labour Organization. It conducts research programs to identify employment problems and needs of particular countries, cooperates with governmental and international agencies on employment issues, and provides advice on employment-related questions. For example, one of its concerns is the relationship between unemployment and poverty, with special emphasis on the problem of rural poverty and hunger in Africa.

- Anti-slavery collection: 18th-19th centuries, from the Library of the Society of Friends, 1760-1978 (inclusive), [microform].
  This collection consists of anti-slavery tracts, pamphlets and journals from the Library of the Society of Friends. Also included is the Thompson-Clarkson Anti-slavery collection: 18th-19th centuries, from the Library of the Society of Friends, 1760-1978 (inclusive), [microform].
This collection consists of anti-slavery tracts, pamphlets and journals from the Library of the Society of Friends. Also included is the Thompson-Clarkson Collection of autograph letters, portraits, and printed material relating to Thomas Clarkson’s “The history of the rise, progress and accomplishment of the abolition of the African slave-trade.”

- Anti-slavery Materials: Regional Records and Other Pamphlets, 18th-19th Centuries
  Collection at John Rylands University Library, Manchester. London, England: Great Britain, Foreign Office Records; General Correspondence Before 1906, Slave Trade, 1816-1892

- Australia: Colonial Life and Settlement. Part 2, Letters Received, 1788-1825.
  Governmental and civilian letters received in the colony of Australia from 1788 to 1825. Topics included are agreements, dispatches, general orders, instructions, regulations, proclamations, memoranda, and reports.

- Politics in the Age of Revolution, 1715-1848.
  The archives of Burke’s letters and papers from the Wentworth Woodhouse, including drafts of speeches and bills, memoranda discussing America, Ireland and the Roman Catholic Question, English politics and the French Revolution.

- The Crimean War, 1853-1856: From the Holdings of the Russian State Military History Archive.
  Military archives focused on the correspondences of Emperor Nicholas I and War Minister Prince V.A. Dolgorukov; the local commanders-in-chief, Field Marshall I.F. Paskevich, Prince Alexander Menshikov, and Prince M.D. Gorchakov; some of their top subordinates, Generals A.N. Luders and P.E. Kotsebu (Kozebue) and Adjutant General Annenkov. Among the memoranda and memoirs are contributions of General F.V. Rudiger, Col. A.P. Khrushchev, the experienced statesman and architect of Balkan policy.

- The Napoleonic Wars, 1805-1815.
  The Military History section or Voennno-Uchenyy Arkhiv (VUA) houses the core of the archival holdings on the Napoleonic era in relation to Russia. Contains military, political, and diplomatic documents, official and private correspondence from Emperor Alexander and generals.
The Annual Register
The Annual Register is a year-by-year record of British and world events covering 1758 to the present and including contemporary opinion, historical context and biographical information. From the American War of Independence, through western industrialisation and world wars, The Annual Register has chronicled and reported events across the globe from the perspective of a contemporary witness.

Guide to British Parliamentary Papers
This is an incredibly useful primer to the vocabulary, structure, and use of British Parliamentary papers.

House of Commons Parliamentary Papers (ProQuest)
With all collections enabled, HCPP now includes over 200,000 House of Commons sessional papers from 1715 to the present, with supplementary material back to 1688. HCPP delivers page images and searchable full text for each paper, along with detailed indexing. HCPP is currently complete from 1801-2006. Records and papers from recent sessions of Parliament will continue to be added on a regular basis.

Documents on British Policy Overseas
Documents on British Policy Overseas provides users with access to a wide range of primary source documents from Britain's Foreign and Commonwealth Office, shedding light on throughout the twentieth century. Selected and edited by the official historians of the FCO, Documents on British Policy Overseas includes many documents specifically de-classified for inclusion in the series.

British Muslims Monthly Survey
A monthly abstract of press reporting on Islam in Britain with complete coverage of the subject available today. BMMS has followed the development of the Muslim Council of Britain since it was founded in 1993, covering the growing recognition of Islam in public life nationally and locally. The activities of local communities in schools, social and cultural life and in dialogue with other religions are recorded in the BMMS.

British Official Publications Current Awareness Service- BOPCAS
BOPCAS stands for British Official Publications Current Awareness Service. It includes the House of Commons and House of Lords Hansard, full-text acts of Parliament from 1995 onwards, full-text statutory instruments from 1997 onwards, policy awareness discussion lists and links to UK government web sites. BOPCAS can be searched or browsed by policy / subject area or date.

Burke's Peerage & Gentry
Burke's Peerage is the definitive historical guide to the UK & Irelands titled and landed families. There are more than 1 million names in 15,000+ family records.

Confidential Print: North America
Colonial Office records spanning 1839-1914, including CO 884/1-38 West Indies, 1826-1961; FO 414/1-278 North America 1824-1941; FO 461/1-13 America, 1942-1956; FO 462/1-10 USA, 1947-1956

Making of Modern Law (Gale)
Contains legal treatises published from 1800-1926, from the Nineteenth-Century Legal Treatises and Twentieth-Century Legal Treatises microfilm collections. Includes more than 21,000 works on U.S. and British Commonwealth law. The nearly 10 million page images are fully searchable by keyword, author, title, date, subject, and full-text.

Mass Observation Online (Adam Matthew Digital)
Special Collections from the University of Sussex Library archive of papers from the original Mass Observation including all material generated by Mass Observation between 1937 and 1949, a few later additions from the 1950s and 1960s and other collections which relate to the historical period and themes of Mass Observation. Many of these are personal papers: diaries, letters, scrapbooks and albums of various kinds.

National Assembly of Wales
Most of the "Topics" (food, tourism, etc.) contain archived material and official government publications. Not exactly an intuitive interface for historians, but contains lots of useful information if you're conducting specialist research on recent Welsh history.

Northern Ireland Assembly
Again, not the most intuitive website for a historian, but there is lots of information if you search for "archive," for instance. Also contains an interesting video archive of recent political broadcasts.

The Scottish Parliament
Another official government webpage. Searching for "archive" provides some interesting resources.

United Kingdom Parliament official website
Another official government webpage. Searching for "archive" provides some interesting resources.

Proceedings of the Old Bailey, London, 1674-1834
(Universities of Hertfordshire and Sheffield). A fully searchable online edition of the largest body of texts detailing the lives of non-elite people ever published, containing accounts of over 100,000 criminal trials held at London's central criminal court.

State papers online - Part I and II.
State Papers Online, 1509-1714 (SPO) offers a completely new working environment to researchers, teachers and students of Early Modern Britain. Whether used for original research, for teaching, or for student project work, State Papers Online offers original historical materials across the widest range of government concern, from high level international politics and diplomacy to the charges against a steward for poisoning a dozen or more people.

The Avalon Project.
The Avalon Project will mount digital documents relevant to the fields of Law, History, Economics, Politics, Diplomacy and Government. We do not intend to mount only static text but rather to add value to the text by linking to supporting documents expressly referred to in the body of the text.
The British field has been crucial to the development of the historiography of revolution, industrialization, capitalism and empire, and we offer course-work in these subject areas. Historians in this field participate in Northwestern's Graduate Cluster in British Studies, alongside colleagues in English, Theater and Performance Studies, Political Science and Art History. We also co-sponsor the Newberry Library's Seminar — with colleagues across Chicagoland. Yale University Library is the second-largest university collection in the world with a total of almost 11 million volumes. The main library, Sterling Memorial Library, contains about four million volumes, and other holdings are dispersed at a variety of subject libraries. Rare books are found in a number of Yale collections. The Beinecke Rare Book Library has a large collection of rare books and manuscripts. The Harvey Cushing/John Hay Whitney Medical Library includes important historical medical texts, including an impressive collection of rare books, as well as historical medical instrument Britain had lost the colony that had provided much of its military muscle east of Suez, as well as paying 'rent' for the 'hire' of much of Britain's own army. The burden of the empire defence shifted back to a Britain that was both weaker and poorer than it had been before 1939. Britain was overshadowed by two new superpowers, the United States and Soviet Union. Histories of the Hanged: Britain's Dirty War in Kenya and the End of Empire by D.Anderson, (Weidenfeld and Nicolson, 2005). The End of Empire and the Making of Malaya by T.N.Harper, (Cambridge University Press, 1999). His original research was concerned with Britain's role in the Middle East at the end of the First World War, a period once seen as marking the onset of Britain's imperial retreat.